Princeton Review Diagnostic Test E Answers

This test was created by the Princeton Review, a large and well-known test prep company. Around the same time, Parker juniors took the official PSAT, which was administered by the College Board, the company that makes the SAT. Recently, the Parker counselors handed back the results from both tests. The results were laughable: many students' scores on the Princeton Review SAT were 100-200 points lower than those on the PSAT.
