SUPERNOVA 1: Kesatria, Putri dan Bintang Jatuh

Criticism on modern Indonesian literatures.

Urban Studies

The Thai capital Bangkok is the unrivalled centre of the country's gay, lesbian and transgender communities. These communities are among the largest in Southeast Asia, and indeed in the world, and have a diversity, social presence and historical depth that set them apart from the queer cultures of many neighbouring societies. The first years of the 21st Century have marked a significant transition moment for all of Thailand's LGBT cultures, with a multidimensional expansion in the geographical extent, media presence, economic importance, political impact, social standing, and cultural relevance of Thai queer communities. This book analyzes the roles of the market and media - especially cinema and the Internet - in these transformations, and considers the ambiguous consequences that the growing commodification and mediatisation of queer lives have had for LGBT rights in Thailand. A key finding is that in the early 21st Century processes of global queering are leading to a growing Asianisation of Bangkok's queer cultures. This book traces Bangkok's emergence as a central focus of an expanding regional network linking gay, lesbian and transgender communities in Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Indonesia, the Philippines and other rapidly developing East and Southeast Asian societies. Peter A. Jackson is associate professor in the School of Culture, History and Language at Australian National University. "The myriad faces of Thai gender/sexuality culture have been an attraction for both pleasure-seekers and researchers/scholars/activists. Exploring the rapidly changing LGBT cultures and Thai queer identities, the essays collected here provide insightful analyses of historical continuities as well as developing variations within the highly complex erotic/economic texture of Thai society. A must-read for anyone in the booming field of gender/sexuality studies." -Josephine Ho, Chair Professor, Center for the Study of Sexualities, National Central University, Taiwan

Hacking God. Design Your Own Life.: 5 Principles in Designing the Life You Want

She's a free-spirited dreamer. He's a brilliant painter. But now their shared passion for art has turned into something deeper. For as long as she can remember, Kugy has loved to write. Whimsical stories are her passion, along with letters full of secret longings that she folds into paper boats and sets out to sea. Now that she's older, she dreams of following her heart and becoming a true teller of tales, but she decides to get a "real job" instead and forget all about Keenan, the guy who makes her feel as if she's living in one of her own fairy tales. Sensitive and introverted, Keenan is an aspiring artist, but he feels pressured to pursue a more practical path. He's drawn to Kugy from first sight: she's unconventional, and the light radiating from her eyes and the warmth of her presence pull him in. They seem like a perfect match-both on and off the page-but revealing their secret feelings means risking their friendship and betraying the people they love most. Can they find the courage to admit their love for each other and chase their long-held dreams?

Menunaikan ikrar mereka untuk berkarya bersama, pasangan Dimas dan Reuben mulai menulis roman yang diberi judul Kesatria, Putri, dan Bintang Jatuh. Paralel dengan itu, dalam kehidupan nyata, sebuah kisah cinta terlarang terjalin antara Ferre dan Rana. Hubungan cinta mereka merepresentasikan dinamika yang terjadi antara tokoh Kesatria dan Putri dalam fiksi Dimas dan Reuben. Tokoh ketiga, Bintang Jatuh, dihadirkan oleh seorang peragawati terkenal bernama Diva, yang memiliki profesi sampingan sebagai pelacur kelas atas. Tanpa ada yang bisa mengantisipasi, kehadiran sosok bernama Supernova menjadi kunci penentu yang akhirnya merajut kehidupan nyata antara Ferre-Rana-Diva dengan kisah fiksi karya Dimas-Reuben dalam satu dimensi kehidupan yang sama. Make It Happen

This conference is a tribute to those astronomers who pioneered the investigation of this subject such a short time ago and who carried it through to its present state. (H. Arp, Concluding Remarks of the Conference) A previous conference, covering mainly the observational aspects of Supernovae, was held at the Haute Provence Observatory in September 1963. In the following ten years this field of research has considerably increased; it seemed, therefore, the right time to organize an international conference on Supernovae taking into account that in the meantime important discoveries, such as the Pulsars, had been made, and new techniques of observation were available. This book contains the proceedings of this conference held at Porto Cesareo (Lecce), Italy, during the period May 7 through 11, 1973. About one hundred participants from eighteen countries attended the conference. It was also the first attempt to hold an international conference in the Salento, the southernmost region of Apulia, in whose capital, Lecce, the newly founded Faculty of Sciences of the University of Lecce is located. The program of the conference included the results and techniques of Supernova surveys, photometric and spectral studies, statistics of Supernovae, Supernova Remnants, and finally, theories on Supernovae and Supernova Remnants.

Sebastian Darke: Prince of Pirates

Supernova: The Knight, The Princess and the Falling Star presents a series of intertwined and unconventional love stories, straight and gay, with a bit of science and spirituality added to the mix. The major characters are young, urban, and technologically highly aware. They are caught up in major forms of contemporary social conflict. The work has been highly acclaimed. The poet Taufiq Ismail has written: "A renewal has taken place in Indonesian literature over the past decade. Supernova is an intelligent, unique and truly exciting exploration of science, spirituality and the nature of love." The literary critic Jacob Soemardjo suggests: "This is an attractive novel by a young writer. It is an intellectual work in the form of a work of pop art, set in the real world. It opposes old values with new ways of understanding, so that readers can see the world in a different way."

Narrating Race

The Second Edition of Research Methods in Practice: Strategies for Description and Causation sets an entirely new standard for presenting and learning research methods. The perspective gained from this text makes it a truly necessary tool for such applied disciplines as public affairs and administration, public policy, psychology, urban affairs, education, sociology, social work, business, public health, political science, economics, communications and criminal justice. Imbued with a deep commitment to make social and policy research methods accessible and meaningful, the Second Edition of Research Methods in Practice: Strategies for Description and Causation compels and inspires students to truly grasp the logic—and limits—of the latest research appearing in academic journals, government reports, and the media. Authors Dahlia K. Remler and Gregg G. Van Ryzin cover the most pertinent issues and methods, emphasizing the critical interpretation and practical application of research findings. Both causation and description—and the distinction between them—are emphasized and maintained thematically throughout the text. Concepts are taught through in-depth examples, such as “Fighting Malaria in Kenya,” “The U.S. Poverty Measure,” “The Fallout from Hurricane Katrina,” “Family Dinners and Teenage Substance Abuse,” and “The Effect of Poverty on Mental Health.” The realistic trade-offs, uncertainties, habits, and excitement of the research experience come through on every page. “This is the best text available for teaching students the fundamentals of research design and statistics, and for introducing them to the difficulties inherent in evaluation research and causal inference.” —Dave E. Marcotte, University of Maryland, Baltimore County

Tidak ada awal dan akhir. Tidak ada sebab dan akibat. Tidak ada ruang dan waktu. Yang ada hanyalah Ada.  Dalam pengalaman membaca, ketika ada rangkaian kalimat yang berdenting begitu telak, kadang kita bisa berhenti sejenak, untuk merenung dan berefleksi. Momen-momen itu bagai penanda, pembatas buku yang selamanya tersimpan dalam cerita, sekaligus menjadi bukti bahwa sebuah rangkaian kalimat-tak peduli sependek atau sesederhana apa pun ia-sanggup meninggalkan makna yang mendalam bagi kita. Kepingan Supernova dihadirkan untuk merangkum momen semacam itu. Nikmatilah Kepingan Supernova dengan cara yang Anda suka. Semoga buku ini dapat menjadi penanda kebersamaan Anda dengan semesta Supernova. [Mizan, Bentang Pustaka, Novel, Life, Motivasi, Indonesia,] Spesial Bentang Dee Lestari

Describes Herliany's writing as revealing "a struggle to understand human experience in all its reality - not as an ideal but as a fact that displays profound suffering and hurt, without, apparently, any hope of redemption." Kajian feminisme di Malaysia sudah melalui tahap permulaannya. Buku ini, Puitika Sastera Wanita Indonesia dan Malaysia: Satu Bacaan Ginokritik membawa pembaca ke tahap seterusnya dengan perbincangan daripada sudut yang lebih mutakhir dan menggunakan teori ginokritik yang digagaskan oleh Showalter. Perbincangan yang tersusun rapi dan diperkuat dengan hujah-hujah serta contoh yang jelas ini memberikan gambaran dan amalan puitika wanita yang lebih menonjolkan biologi dan pengalaman wanita. Puitika wanita yang unik dan berlainan ini mendekonstruksikan puitika aliran perdana (lelaki), dan oleh yang demikian bersifat subversif kerana yang dijadikan medan perbincangan di sini ialah perasaan, suara, keinginan, perlambangan, imej, wacana dan gaya wanita, yang seterusnya dihubungkan dengan sifat biologi pengarang wanita. Pengarang menggalurkan unsur-unsur ini dalam karya-karya pengarang penting Indonesia dan Malaysia, termasuk Titis Basino, Oka Rusmini, Ayu Utami dan Toety Heraty dari Indonesia, dan Azmah Nordin, Rosmini Shaari, Fatimah Busu dan Zaharah Nawawi dari Malaysia. Aspek-aspek serta unsur-unsur yang secara langsung atau tidak langsung telah mempengaruhi proses pembentukan puitika ini di kedua-dua buah negara turut dibincangkan. Buku ini sememangnya adalah pemaparan usaha penting pengarang yang membuka lembar baru dalam penerokaan akal budi pengarang wanita Malaysia dan dengan itu berlaku adil kepada wacana dan sudut wujud mereka. Inilah bahan bacaan dan rujukan penting yang perlu dimiliki oleh para pengkaji dan pelajar kesusasteraan.

The essays in this volume deal with the complexities of race in the Asia-Pacific context. Social tensions concerning race and ethnicity continue to pose profound challenges to Asia-Pacific countries in various stages of development and modernisation. Issues such as social justice, identity-formation, marginalisation and alienation, gender and related issues, are inevitably implicated in the racial cultures of Asia, and where Asian diasporic communities develop. The essays in this volume explore the ways in which race-culture is reflected in literature and cultural texts (drama and performance, visual arts, film and television). Included in this volume are essays on Amitav Ghosh, Vivan Sundaram, Li-Young Lee, R. K.

Messages, Signs, and Meanings can be used directly in introductory courses in semiotics, communications, media, or culture studies. Additionally, it can be used as a complementary or supplementary text in courses dealing with cognate areas of investigation (psychology, mythology, education, literary studies, anthropology, linguistics). The text builds upon what readers already know intuitively about signs, and then leads them to think critically about the world in which they live - a world saturated with images of all kinds that a basic knowledge of semiotics can help filter and deconstruct. The text also provides opportunities for readers to do "hands-on" semiotics through the exercises and questions for discussion that accompany each chapter. Biographical sketches of the major figures in the field are also included, as is a convenient glossary of technical terms. The overall plan of the book is to illustrate how message-making and meaning-making can be studied from the specific vantage point of the discipline of semiotics. This third edition also includes updated discussions of information technology throughout, focusing especially on how meanings are now negotiated through such channels as websites, chat rooms, and instant messages.
